hours length, and absolutely refused

McKenzie the right to be heard, for a moment. If McKenzie had been allowed to reply to his last speech, there would have been some earthquipping sure enough. Now, if Mr.

Swape is such a superior speaker, why would McKenzie seek the aid of a partisan, go 200 miles at his own expense just to be in wiping up the earth, and if Swape could wipe up the earth with his mouth, why was it convenient for him to be sick just at that time? He may have been sick, but he surely did not want to be sick at that time.

It is a pity that McKenzie did not hand, Swape would have filled that appointment.

McKenzie county gave only seventeen Democratic majority in the last election and the parties being so evenly divided her county was a fair place to test the merits of the speakers. Was it not a little cheeky to go to ask a matter of course, and to go to him that McKenzie should not go, after the way he had treated at Beaver Dam? But forgetting Swape's unfairness, he would not go of his own accord, but left it to the Central Committee, which was right and proper, and the Committee decided properly, for he was announced to speak there that day, and Mr. Swape's theory was no excuse for him. In his speech, he apologized for Mr. Swape's absence, but made no other allusion to him.

McKenzie's treatment of Swape, is like returning good for evil, and shows the greater nobility of the man. The truth is, McKenzie had heard Swape's speech at Beaver Dam, and was fully prepared to be sick.

It is quite convenient at certain times, under certain circumstances, to play sick. If Mr. Swape was sick in reality, and willing to go to meet Mr. McKenzie in fair debate during this campaign, he has plenty of opportunities. McKenzie will speak almost every day until the campaign ends, and we, we guarantee, make a fair debate of time with Swape at any of his own exclusive appointments. We agree with the Leader when he says "fair play in politics." Now for the fair discussion, for fair discussion. Put up your hand, up about that earthquipping business.

DEMANDS AN OUTLET.

The Bowling Green Democrat of editorial on the necessity of the people of this county to have an outlet for their surplus of CARLISLE.

A Few Extracts From His Speech Accepting the Renomination to Congress.

THE GREAT QUESTION.

The great question before this country is the question of a Federal taxation. It makes but little difference whether I am elected to Congress or not, but it is of overwhelming importance to the people that the next House of Representatives should be Democratic, and that the next President should be a Democratic also. (Cheers.) The two political parties have nominated their candidates and made formal declarations of their principles, and yet will be called upon next November to decide between them.

The Republican party has chosen as its standard bearer, Mr. Harrison, a respectable lawyer of Indianapolis, for President, and for Vice-President, Levi

P. Morton, a very rich banker in Wall Street. The Democratic party has selected the true and tried, the incorrupt

President who now fills the chair of the man who has brought the Administration back to the ways of the Constitution and given to his people a clear, conclusive and a wise and a just administration of the law. (Cheers.) With him they have associated Mr. Thurman cheers, who for many long years has been the best and truest representative of our Western Democracy.

WHICH WILL YOU HAVE?

Now the great question you are to decide is whether this system of taxation shall be continued indefinitely, or whether the country will return to the method of taxation which prevailed in this country before the war, for the first time in the history of this country so far as I know, Republicanism has substantially declared its platform in favor of increasing the revenue by increasing the taxes. Applause and laughter. It declares that it deems it necessary to reduce the revenue by

THIS Nag, OLD CHEAP, is already death-ridden, as he has carried all the falsehoods and misrepresentations that ever entered into the minds of merchants to deceive their fellowman, to-wit: "Assignee Dodge, Taking stock, Mark-Down Sale, Overstocked, Change of Firm, Reducing Stock, Fire Sale, Clearance Sale," and a thousand other threadbare catch-penny clap-traps. The method of doing business is everything. PROGRESS is sure to be ahead in front.

C. C. Bennett and S. A. Williams bought out the shop line now run by Jasper Dutton on Williams Bros. They will take charge to-day.
Don't buy cheap and shoddy jewelry and watches with the expectation of getting the best end of the trade with trifling gains but buy good honest goods of Martin the Jeweler.
Every farmer in Ohio county will find great profit in his county Fair, and show his appreciation by giving a stock, thereby making this enterprise only the more interesting.
The Floral Hall display depends upon the interest taken in it by the ladies and the Fair Company respectively ask for cooperation and assistance from all parts of the county.
We are indebted to Mr. G. B. Petty, of near Louisville, for as fine a specimen of southern potatoes as was seen anywhere. It was made up of new ones. Name not known. Mr. Petty will gladly give anyone who may desire a few seeds.

Stock has already begun coming in, and are stationed at the Fair grounds. From the present outlook, everything points to one of the finest lot of stock ever exhibited at our Fair.

Mr. J. Edwin Rowe, we are told, did great credit to himself and his party, represented in his speech at Princeton last Saturday. He literally mopped up the earth with E. P. Neal.

As to the bull of the bridge, the fall, said it was the fellow who wouldn't see (that's) a major, and on children cry, "No cure, no pay," by W. T. King, Agent.

Several of the magisterial districts held very interesting sessions last Saturday. We already heard of the reports from some and expect others of all such will appear in our next issue.

Now is the time to get your buggy as they will be sold for 15 per cent less than they could be bought for next year, bargains from $25.00 to $50.00. Come and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere. W. T. King, Agent.

Board of Mrs. J. S. Vaughn at 25c, per meal of 75c per day, lodging included. These rates will also be given during the Fair. Give a call and you will be as well entertained as if you were paying $2.00 per day.

In attempting to raise the flagpole at the junction of the Owensboro and Louisville roads last Saturday, the pole broke and the work was postponed till Saturday 29th. Let it be raised by this Democratic flag-raising.

A game of base-ball will be played at Hartsville next Saturday by the Seneca Hill and Rochester clubs. A close and interesting contest is expected. The Seneca Hill team is composed of Ohio county boys, and is therefore hard to beat.

The storm last Friday night did considerable damage in the No. 100 bridge. Several cords of tobacco in that immediate vicinity were badly cut to pieces by hail. Very little damage done in other parts of the county.

I have some of the celebrated Mohawk brand cigars, and will be sold at 25c per 100, or I will take one or two in exchange at the market price.

I have secured the service of a first-class horse and man now prepared to do all kinds of heavy hauling for the fair. All work done in workman like style and satisfaction. Call on T. F. Twedell, next door to S. A. Williams store.

John H. Small, of the firm "Small Bros., Owensboro, Ky., is still in town, and can be found at his elegant sample room at the Hartford Hotel. He will remain till Saturday evening. Those desiring a bargain, will do well to call on him while here.

A negro giving his name as Amos Church was arrested near Olcott last Saturday by J. H. C. Gannon, assessor, and taken to Hartford. He was found in jail, charged with larceny. He has not been tried yet. He claims to be from Kentucky.

Mr. Livingston Barrett, one of the progressive young farmers of the Barrety Ferry neighborhood, has presented to the fair several "bunches" of his fine year crop of tobacco, with which to "measure" Cane, but the crop and should get a good price.

The Fair Company have employed the Louisville band, just completed by John R. Phelps & Co. The company of this band is 1,000 ladies. They are now prepared to give the highest cash prize for all the ladies' best music during the Fair. Hence, the people may come to the Fair next week with the expectation of listening to the best music. The company has gone to extra pains to secure the best of this band which will doubtless be fully appreciated by the public in general.

The pride of the town should be the fine old elevator just completed by John R. Phelps & Co. The capacity of this elevator is 1,000 bushels. They are now prepared to give the highest cash prize for all the ladies' best music during the Fair. Hence, the people may come to the Fair next week with the expectation of listening to the best music. The company has gone to extra pains to secure the best of this band which will doubtless be fully appreciated by the public in general.

In the notice of the wedding of Ben Lott that appeared in the Herald, Sept. 25th, it was taken a mistake was made as to the name of the bride. The bride was taken from Steve Lott, a son of the late Ben Lott, and not from the late Ben Lott, as it was stated. (Long's) has a distance of about two hundred yards and severely whipped.
